

Barking and Dagenham Yellow Advertiser

Week ending Friday April 15, 2016

DROP-IN sessions are being held for residents to find out more about works to improve the London Overground route between Gospel Oak and Barking.

Major upgrade work to the line will start from June as part of Network Rail's Railway Upgrade Plan.

An eight-month closure of the railway is needed to carry out the work. Ahead of the closure, a series of sessions are being held from Monday, April 18 to Thursday, May 5.

Staff will be at a different stations during the evening peak (4pm-7pm) to meet passengers, answer questions and explain the works as well as details of alternative travel arrangements.

The project, which is funded by the Department for Transport and Transport for London (TfL), is being delivered by Network Rail.

It will see TfL introduce new four-carriage electric trains to replace the existing two-carriage diesel trains from January 2018.

Network Rail will be carrying out the work to electrify the line in two phases.

From Saturday, June 4 to Sunday September, 25 there will be no service between South Tottenham and Barking, whilst trains will run on weekdays between Gospel Oak and South Tottenham, but not at weekends.

TfL will be providing rail replacement buses which will operate along the route.

From Monday, September 26, to February 2017, there will be a full closure from Gospel Oak to Barking.

Network Rail's route managing director, Richard Schofield, said: "We know this is a big change for people as we carry out the improvement.

RAIL LINE UPGRADE SESSIONS

ments and that's why we wanted to get out and have staff at every station to meet passengers and local residents and answer any questions they may have. We'll also explain the complexity of the work and the need for an eight-month closure."

In order to electrify the railway, overhead wires and structures will be installed as well as the construction of three new switching stations.

To make room for this new infrastructure, four sections of the track will be lowered, four bridges rebuilt and a further six modernised.

TfL will also be lengthening platforms and enhancing stations to accommodate the longer trains.

Network Rail has already started work on the foundations for the structures that will carry the overhead wires.

Mike Stubbs, TfL's director of London Overground, said: "This work will allow us to run new longer walk-through trains on the line from January 2018, doubling capacity along the route.

"We recognise that there will be disruption to customers while the upgrade work is carried out and I'd like to thank them for their patience in advance. We will continue to work closely with Network Rail to see if the timescales they set out can be reduced."

From February 2017 onwards further work to have the line ready for electric trains will take place during evenings and weekends only and will be completed by the end of June 2017.

Life-affirming wedding bells

A HOSPICE patient's wish to marry her long-term partner came true in a ceremony at Saint Francis Hospice in Havering-atte-Bower.

Staff and patients applauded as Sharon Cashman, 51, was wheeled from the inpatient unit to the chapel by her brother Mark, where she joined Chris Cox at the altar.

Sharon has cancer and has been cared for at the unit since March 21.

After the nuptials were complete, Sharon and Chris, who have been together for five years, then invited their friends and family to celebrate in the visitors lounge.

Chris, of Hainault, said: "It was such a lovely day - we were all so happy together."

"Everyone at the hospice was so helpful and kind - we could not have asked for more."

Debbie Fleming, from Harold Hill, who has known Sharon since they were both

WEDDED BLISS: Sharon Cashman is escorted by brother Mark, and below the happy couple 16, said: "It meant everything to me to be there. She looked so lovely that it took my breath away." Debbie first met Sharon through their love of horses. They used to work at Aldborough Hall Equestrian Centre and horses have continued to be an important part of their lives. Jayne King, Chris's sister, said the hospice overlooked a field with horses, which gave a special feel to the occasion.

"There was a mixture of strong emotions on the day, but we could not have asked for a more beautiful setting," she said.

Senior staff nurse Laura Birnie, who helped to co-ordinate the wedding, said: "When Chris told us that they wanted to get married, we were happy to help in every way we could.

"We are absolutely delighted that they had such a wonderful day which they were able to share with their friends and family."

NEWS

WINNER: Jimmy Ford

Jimmy is a Sea Life video star

A DAGENHAM boy has won a nationwide competition to become a junior broadcaster for the Sea Life London Aquarium.

The attraction launched its search in February to find two young animal-lovers, aged between eight and 11, to present a series of short videos on its behalf.

Entrants were asked to film a video of themselves introducing their favourite animal.

Ten-year-old Jimmy Ford's entry featured his pet bearded dragon. He also created a themed set and wore a cork hat.

The first report he was involved in focused on the new Frozen Planet: Face-to-Face experience which has recently launched at the aquarium.

Jimmy said: "It was amazing and I learnt some new interesting facts. I cannot wait for the next report."

The aquarium is home to one of Europe's largest collections of global marine life, and Jimmy will be involved in several more reports throughout the year.

Full footage can be viewed at sealife.com/london/discover/junior-broadcasters/.

LONDON BOROUGH

Family's tribute to police officer killed on M25

A MAN killed in a road collision on the M25 was a serving police officer with the Met's royal protection squad.

Police were called shortly before 9pm on Thursday, March 31, to reports of a crash on the M25 anti-clockwise carriageways between junctions 29 Codham hall Wood and 28 near Brentwood.

Officers and the London Ambulance Service attended and found a 48-year-old man who was pronounced dead at the scene.

Following formal identification, the dead man has been named as Sgt David Jennings, who served in the Metropolitan Police Service's Royalty and Specialist Protection Command.

A post-mortem examination took place on Friday, April 1, at Queen's Hospital Mortuary, Romford, and police are awaiting the results.

In a statement, Sgt Jennings's family said: "We have lost a devoted father, husband, brother and son who was dependable, hard working and completely rooted to his family.

DEDICATED: Sgt David Jennings

"He was committed to his job and was loved and respected by his family and friends.

"He will be deeply missed and the world will be a darker place without him."

Chief Superintendent Bert Moore, of the Royalty and Specialist Protection Command, said: "Dave was a consummate professional who displayed all that is good about the Metropolitan Police.

"He was my staff officer so I saw daily the commitment he gave to the force.

"His death will be keenly felt by his colleagues and friends and our thoughts are with his family at this time."

Detectives believe that Sgt Jennings's car collided with the central reservation and he pulled over to a stop on the hard shoulder.

He got out of his car and a heavy goods vehicle collided with him.

The lorry driver stopped briefly but did not remain at the scene.

On Friday, April 1, a 28-year-old man was arrested on suspicion of causing death by careless driving and has been bailed to a date in July.

Detectives continue to appeal for any drivers travelling on the M25 at the time, who may have witnessed any part of the incident, to contact them.

Any witnesses or anyone with any information can call roads and transport police on 020 8597 4874.

Crafty kids make funky bird feeders

Megan Coluin, three

Mila Naik-Patton, four

Maia Naik-Patton, six

CHILDREN decorated bird feeders as part of an Easter holiday event in Harold Wood. It was held by Crafty Arts at its Creative Hub in Bryant Avenue on Friday.

The children had the opportunity to decorate the bird feeders that would be filled with seeds for birds to eat.

O's boss relieved of managerial duties after just three months

NOLAN OUT!

Football

LEYTON Orient first team player/boss Kevin Nolan has been stripped of his managerial role after being called to a meeting with owner Francesco Beccetti on Tuesday.

Nolan has only been at the club for three months, presiding over 15 games with seven wins, and gleaned 23 points.

However, after last Saturday's 3-0 trouncing at Barnet, the O's slipped to 11th spot in League Two and two points outside the play-offs.

Orient chief executive Alessandro Angelieri said: "We believe Kevin will be able to make a bigger impact without the distraction of managerial duties."

Nolan, 33, became the youngest manager in the Football League when he signed a two-and-a-half-year deal with the east London club, who were relegated from League One last season.

Andy Hessonthalter has been put in charge of the first team.

Barnet 3 Leyton Orient 0
Sky Bet League Two

By Rowland Lyons at The Hive

LEYTON Orient's fading play-off hopes suffered another dent on Saturday after a John Akinde brace, sandwiched between Sam Togwell's strike, ensured the Bees cantered home. Lloyd James missed a second-half penalty for the lacklustre O's.

On their first ever visit to Barnet's new ground, player-manager Kevin Nolan made two changes from the York draw. Calum Jahraldo-Martin replaced the injured Jobi McAnuff, with James earning a first start since late December, in place of the benched Sean Clohessy.

Barnet's physical approach nearly paid early dividends with Curtis Weston and Michael Nelson providing a handful for the visitors.

Their pressure paid off on 26 minutes when the Orient defence stopped waiting for the referee's whistle from a Barnet "handball", but the home side played on and James Pearson's deep cross found the head of Akinde, whose angled finish gave Alex Cisak no chance.

Orient hit back and Barnet had keeper Jamie Stephens, who twice thwarted goalbound Nigel Atangana drives, to thank before Nolan was unable to direct a close-range header goalwards from Nicky Hunt's cross.

Straight after the restart Jerome Binnom-Williams won a penalty after being felled by Bees' skipper Andy Yiadom. But James's spot-kick was too weak and Stephens easily saved low at his left post.

Barely two minutes later Barnet were out of sight when Togwell let fly and beat Cisak with a wicked ricochet off the unfortunate Peter Ramage.

And on 58 minutes the Bees added insult to injury when Akinde beat Cisak on his 18-yard line from a Weston knock-on and the ball bobbled into an empty net.

With the game now lost, Nolan threw on youngster Josh Koroma, who showed some of his more senior team-mates some passion and nearly capped his industrious cameo performance with a last-minute free-kick that just cleared Stephens's crossbar.

Nolan admitted: "We're really disappointed as we had some good chances in the first-half, but their keeper has made two fantastic saves. Then we had a great start to the second half. We get a penalty – miss another one – then we give another two goals away. We were really struggling then."

"I said to the lads that there is no point in me ranting and raving. We will assess everything this week, but this is when you learn about your players more. We must dust ourselves down and I just have to keep believing in what I'm doing."

Bees boss Martin Allen criticised his opponents. "With the budget Orient have they should be challenging for the top," he said. "We played them on the first day of the season and we should have won it.

"But we have a very small squad and don't pay fantastic wages, but we'll take on anybody and we've done well."

Full-back Hunt added: "Today was frustrating more than anything.

"The chances we created in the first-half were enough to come in at half-time two-one up. The lads are devastated with the result.

"We came here to win and it has not worked out that way."

The former Bolton star admitted: "We have five games to rectify our season. A lot was said after the game of where we want to be but we could be in a lot worse position.

"With two home games coming up against Dagenham on Saturday (kick-off 3pm) and Plymouth, Tuesday week (7.45pm), it's a chance to get six points on the board."

Bronze medal for Ilyas

Martial Arts

SCHOOLBOY Ilyas Hussain, from Beal High School, in Ilford, competed at the President's Cup G2 World Ranking Taekwondo Championships over the Easter break.

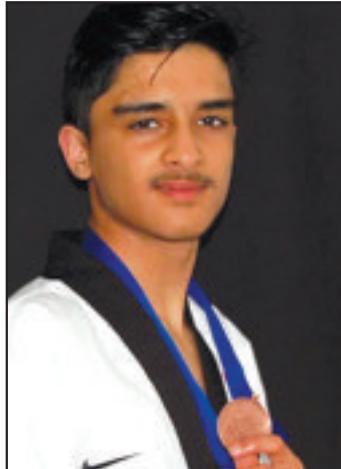

The four-day tournament was held in Bonn, Germany, with more than 1,500 world class competitors from across the globe.

Ilyas, 14, who is a member of the GB National Junior Squad, was competing for the first time in the 45kg division. Brother Ibrahim was also in the same category but on the opposite side of the draw.

Both brothers secured convincing wins, with Ibrahim making it to the quarter-finals. But Ilyas progressed further and into the semi-final he faced the current Dutch Open Champion.

Over the three rounds Ilyas fought strong and held a lead, but in the closing seconds of the match conceded a head shot and went out 4-2. Nonetheless, it was an amazing achievement for the youngster who can take some positive feedback, and a bronze medal from the tournament.

Ilyas trains at local club Gurumu Taekwondo twice a week as well as in Man-

Juniors train with Team GB

AHEAD of the Hockey Champions Trophy in June at Lee Valley, where the best international sides battle it out ahead of the Rio Olympics, Team GB women's hockey team hosted a junior training day at Lee Valley for invited schools and clubs including Crostyx, Waltham Forest and East London.

The event, organised by national squad sponsor Investec, saw 12 youngsters from each club and school given the opportunity to train under the guidance of the Great Britain squad who passed on coaching advice and tips to the next generation of hockey players.

East Thurrock ease to win

By Brian Jeeves

IMPRESSIVE East Thurrock United eased to an emphatic 4-1 Ryman Premier League win over relegated VCD Athletic, keeping alive their hopes of automatic promotion.

Tom Wright, Kris Newby and a brace from Joe Ellul kept the Rocks in second place, four points behind leaders Hampton & Richmond Borough with two games to play.

Elsewhere in the Premier Division Harrison Chatting was on target as Canvey Island won by a single goal at Metropolitan Police, while Jordan Cox fired Billericay Town into a 2-0 lead at Tonbridge Angels only for the Kent side to hit back for a 2-2 draw thanks to strike from Nathan Elder and Tom Parkinson. Brentwood Town and Kingstonian played out a goalless draw at the Arena, while Grays Athletic slumped to a 2-0 home defeat against Needham Market.

AFC Hornchurch were amongst the goals in Ryman League Division One North.

Nicky Symons, George Purcell and David Knight earned the Urchins a 3-0 win at Haringey Borough, and it was the same outcome at Waltham Abbey where Jack Barham, Matthew Pooley and Lewis Godbold were the scorers for Heybridge Swifts.

Meanwhile Maldon & Tiptree were involved in a seven-goal thriller with visitors Thamesmead Town, Rhys Henry, Darren McQueen, Adam Mills and Sam Newson all finding the net as the hosts won 4-3. Daniel Francis and Ross Wall helped Thurrock to a 2-1 win over Bury Town at Ship Lane, while their 1-0 away successes for Redbridge, at Barkingside, and Romford, at Cray Wanderers. Brightlingsea Regent and Avelsey ended goalless, while Tilbury slipped to a 1-0 defeat against AFC Sudbury at Chad Fields.

In the National League Braintree Town ended a run of three successive defeats with a battling 1-1 draw against promotion-chasing Forest Green Rovers. Kenny Davis fired the Iron into a first half lead from the penalty spot but ex-West Bromwich Albion man Darren Carter restored parity after the break.

In the National South Billy Bricknell fired Chelmsford City ahead at Ebbsfleet United after just nine seconds. However, the hosts hit back in the second period to win by three goals to one. Concord Rangers were also beaten. Despite Lewis Taaffe's strike, Bath City took the points with a 2-1 win at the Aspect Arena.

In the Essex Senior League Bowers & Pitsea hammered Eton Manor 5-0, and there were 4-0 wins for Basildon United, at Takeley, and Waltham Forest, over Hullbridge Sports. Stansted triumphed 4-1 over Sawbridgeworth Town, and it was the same outcome at Mavesbrook Park where Barking saw off Newham FC.

Burnham Ramblers were 2-0 winners over Greenhouse Sports as were FC Romania against Clapton. Enfield 1893 edged out Tower Hamlets by the odd goal in three, while Ilford won 1-0 at Sporting Bengal United.

Selected action from the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League saw Harold Hill win their Premier League clash with Newham United 3-0. In Division One Snarebrook won an entertaining encounter with Runwell Hospital 4-2, while FC Hamlets were 3-0 winners over Roydon in Division Two.

Game of the day in Division Three saw Benfleet beat Epping 5-3.
